BEYOND COLLEGE

To Chi Alpha

Would you like to give a year back to your local Chi Alpha ministry or help launch a new Chi Alpha group as a Campus Missionary Associate (CMA)*? Align yourself with a Chi Alpha missionary to use your skills in discipleship, worship, and evangelism or even graphic arts and administration. It's a chance to give back to the ministry that invested so much in you. Talk to your Chi Alpha leader for more details.

WHERE DO I CONNECT?

National Chi Alpha Alumni Association

The National Chi Alpha Alumni Association seeks to bring Chi Alpha alumni and friends together to fulfill the mission of Chi Alpha Campus Ministries to reconcile students to Christ and to continue our mission as alumni to transform the university, the marketplace, and the world. Go to chialphaalumni.com for more information about connecting, praying, and giving with fellow alumni.

Internship

A Campus Missionary in Training (CMIT) is a ten-month internship program designed as Chi Alpha's staff training track. The ultimate goal of all Chi Alpha internships is to offer an authentic place of growth and excellence in preparation for campus missions. An intern is not relegated to being a staff person's gopher or a "special projects" person. Instead, an intern joins a Chi Alpha ministry team as co-worker under training. Go to chialpha.com/cmit for details about the internship program.

I FEEL LED TO GIVE A YEAR

To a U.S. or World Ministry

Want to serve as a Missionary Associate* for a year following graduation? Chi Alpha can help place you alongside a missionary almost anywhere around the globe. While assisting a career missionary, you'll put your degree to use teaching children, reaching university students, caring for those caught in sex trafficking, or sharing your faith with the pre-Christian. For more information, go to chialpha.com/expeditions.

*Campus Missionary Associates and Missionary Associates are required to raise their personal living and work expenses.

HOW CAN I BE TRAINED?

Support Raising

Does the thought of raising a budget intimidate you? It doesn't have to.
