

Crystal Martin has served with Chi Alpha Campus Ministries, U.S.A. for over 20 years in a variety of roles, including missionary on the local campus, missionary overseas, and as the director of Chi Alpha Internationals. Presently, she serves as Chi Alpha's Cross-Cultural Missions Director.

Crystal is the co-creator of The World Missions Summit, a partnership between Chi Alpha and Assemblies of God World Missions designed to launch a missions movement in our generation. The phrase coined by Crystal, "Give a year and pray about a lifetime," gives students a tangible starting place to fulfill their missionary call.

In addition to serving with Chi Alpha, Crystal serves as the National Director of the Network of Women Ministers. She is also part of the pastoral staff at Central Assembly of God (Springfield, MO) as an associate pastor.

Throughout her ministry career, Crystal has worked to create big footprints for the next generation and to advocate for women at all levels of church leadership. Crystal graduated from the University of Arizona (Tucson, AZ) and earned a master's degree in organizational leadership from Evangel University (Springfield, MO). She and her husband, E. Scott Martin, have two adult sons and a daughter-in-law.
