

E. Scott Martin

Chi Alpha National Senior Director

E. Scott Martin is from Arizona where he earned his master's and became involved with student ministry through The University of Arizona. He planted Chi Alpha at the University of Arizona with his fellow students and then became the campus pastor there. He served as a District XA Director, worked with his family overseas in Central Asia, and was the XA mission director before taking on the position as National XA Director in Spring of 2014. Scott is an avid hunter, owns a ranch outside Springfield, MO and loves NCAA sports. His heart is in student ministry and building the Kingdom, "Every student goes, every student gives, every student prays, every student welcomes."
