

E. Scott Martin Biography

E. Scott Martin is from Arizona where he earned a bachelor degree in Biology and a Master's degree in Soil and Water Science from the University of Arizona. He is currently a doctoral candidate at Assemblies of God Theological Seminary. He became involved in university student ministry at the University of Arizona and was part of a group of students who pioneered Chi Alpha on that campus. He was the first lead director of Chi Alpha there and served as the state director of Chi Alpha in Arizona. Scott and his family served overseas in Central Asia planting campus ministry and was the National Chi Alpha Cross Cultural Missions Director prior to becoming the National Director of Chi Alpha in Spring of 2014. Scott's heart is in student ministry and building the Kingdom of God. His challenge to university students is, "Every student goes, every student gives, every student prays, every student welcomes."

Scott is married to Crystal who serves as the Cross Cultural Missions Director of National Chi Alpha. They have two sons, Mercer and Marcus, and a daughter-in-law, Molly.
